

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITY FOR BANNER AT THE JACO PASTORIUS PARK

North Dixie Hwy. & NE 38th Street • Downtown Oakland Park, Florida

Be one of the first to support this exciting Public Art Mural Project and get recognition for your company!

- We will print your 6.5' X 7' banner in full color and hang it from the scaffolding and on the outside walls of the new community center in the Jaco Pastorius Park for the duration of the project.
- Your banner will be highly visible from Dixie Highway (35,000 cars pass by daily) and will be seen by all visitors to the park (concerts, movie nights, and other activities).
- 5-minute interview aired live on Channel 1470 AM with radio talk show host Lorenzo White, about your company or product.

Oakland Park Main Street commissioned artist Ciccio to paint a 19' H X 140' W mural on the south and east walls of the new community center in the Jaco Pastorius Park. The mural depicts Jaco Pastorius and the influences on his music, including likenesses of Jaco Pastorius, Miles Davis, Pat Metheny, Charlie Parker and Jimi Hendrix. Projected completion date is August 31, 2009.
